Making payments on time

We know this time of the year- and this year in particular - is always challenging when there are various trips to pay for, school meals etc. However, we are noticing an increase in the debt that the school is holding and we need to do all we can to reduce it. If you feel you are eligible for Free School Meals, please apply via the Local Authority's website: this makes a noticeable difference to the amount of money a family has each month if on a lower income.

If you are holding a debt, we ask that you chip away at it rather than just leaving it- schools do not have the money to make up any shortfall. We thank you for your help in this matter.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Friday 22nd July—School finishes at 2pm!

Monday 25 & Tuesday 26th July: Staff Training (school closed to pupils).

Wednesday 27th July—SUMMER HOLIDAYS!

Writing

Writing at Rosemellin

This year, Rosemellin writers have excelled themselves and created a huge variety of wonderful texts. All of our writing at Rosemellin is based around the writing we read through the Literacy Curriculum: the teaching of writing with high quality texts at its core. Within one story, your child may write anything from a news report, to poetry, to stories to a persuasive letter or a playscript (and more!). The variety is embedded from the outset so that, by the time they leave year 6, they are confident with any genre and understand what quality writing looks and sounds like.

By enabling our learners to encounter high quality, age-appropriate writing, through the stories that we study, we allow them to create their own slices of awesome!

I am often asked by parents “how can I get my child to write?”. The key is to give it a purpose: many children need a reason to write. Shopping lists, word games, ‘convince me’ letters (for example, persuading you to allow later bedtimes or more pocket money), scrapbooks, a journal jar, are all ways you can encourage a reluctant child to pick up a pencil.

This website has lots of great ideas that may help: <https://www.oxfordlearning.com/improve-kids-writing-skills/>

The collage features various student writing samples, each labeled with a year level (y1 to y6). The samples include:

- y1: A drawing of a bird with the text "I hope some of you enjoy reading".
- y2: A drawing of a bird with the text "I hope some of you enjoy reading".
- y3: A drawing of a bird with the text "I hope some of you enjoy reading".
- y4: A drawing of a bird with the text "I hope some of you enjoy reading".
- y5: A drawing of a bird with the text "I hope some of you enjoy reading".
- y6: A drawing of a bird with the text "I hope some of you enjoy reading".

Starting from Monday 25TH July there will be 10 fairy doors with different themes hiding around the centre of Redruth.

Can you find them all?

The fairy doors will be hiding in various shop windows for you to find. From along Chapel Street right up to Bond Street and many places in between! All you need to do is list the 10 different shops you find the doors in and you'll have the chance to win a voucher for £15 to spend at The Funky Brownie company!!

You can collect a form from Redruth library where you'll see this door, before going off around Redruth to find the 10 doors that are hiding!

If you have access to Facebook, you can fill the online form on our page Redruth Fairy Door Trail.

Once you've found a door, why not take a look inside the shop and see what a wonderful place Redruth is for independent businesses!!

Mrs Finn's Message

Dear Parents/Carers

I hope you all enjoyed a super weekend. The weather was certainly glorious and it makes us all appreciate what a beautiful part of the world we live in. Speaking with the children it sounds as though many of you made the most of it and enjoyed going to the beach, being out and about and generally having a good time.

This afternoon, the children enjoyed a transition afternoon. As a class, they moved to their new room and met with their new teacher and teaching assistant/s. It is always so lovely to see the children and the preparations that have gone into ensuring the children make as successful a move as possible. We absolutely understand it is new for everyone and, in September, there will time again to go through classroom routines, introductions etc. so the children feel safe, happy and secure. This is an exciting time for the children but we understand it can also be a time that may cause anxiety, worry etc. Please, rest assured, we will do all we can to ensure the transition in September goes as smoothly as possible. However, should you have any concern in the new term, let the class teacher know and, I know, they will work hard to do something about it.

Best wishes

Mrs Finn
