Miss Sargent's Message

Last week was our first full week back at school and we were very excited to welcome the children into Foundation Stage. It has been lovely to see how well they are settling into the new routines, building confidence and making new friends.

Friday afternoon's assembly looked at setting goals. I always say that the positive of working and being in school is that you get two new years/ two fresh starts. One with the start of the calendar year and one for the start of the academic year. The children spent time reflecting on what they'd like to achieve this school year - we spoke about the fact that these can be lots of smaller goals or one big one. At the end of the day, a child in Year 3 came up to me and said that they dreamt of being a Scientist and an Artist but didn't know how she could be both. We had a wonderful chat about Charles Darwin and the fact he used to sketch all of the new species he discovered. I loved looking at her drawings and am excited to see where her future takes her.

If you get a chance, ask your child/ren what their goal is. Do you have one too?

Attendance

We all know that good attendance is a key factor in children gaining good outcomes whilst at school. With the curriculum being packed full of exciting lessons and things to learn, missing even the smallest amount of school can have an impact on their learning. Of course, there are times when missing school is unavoidable and we always take this into consideration. However, having had the last few years of disruption it is essential that children are in school as much as possible. This also includes arriving late and/or being collected early (unless agreed with the school). The school gates close at 9am and teaching starts straight away. Over the next week, you will be receiving the Crofty MAT attendance policy and a letter regarding attendance. Our aim is to work with you and support you to ensure your child/ren are attending school and gaining the education they need for their future. Please don't hesitate to make an appointment if you would like to discuss this any further.

Many thanks
